Application Essays

We ask applicants to answer several short questions (limit 50 words each) and to write a short essay on each of the three topics below.

Short Essay Questions

There is a 100-word minimum and a 250-word maximum for each essay.

- The Stanford community is deeply curious and driven to learn in and out of the classroom. Reflect on an idea or experience that makes you genuinely excited about learning.
- Virtually all of Stanford's undergraduates live on campus. Write a note to your future roommate that reveals something about you or that will help your roommate—and us—get to know you better.
- Please describe what aspects of your life experiences, interests and character would help you make a distinctive contribution as an undergraduate to Stanford University.

There is a 3-word minimum and a 50-word maximum for each essay.

- List five things that are important to you.
- Briefly elaborate on one of your extracurricular activities, a job you hold, or responsibilities you have for your family.
- What historical moment or event do you wish you could have witnessed?
- What is the most significant challenge that society faces today?
- How did you spend your last two summers?
